Dear Mrs. Thatcher,

We are delighted to be able to inform you that Alexander PARITSKY has been released from labour camp after serving three years and has now returned home to his wife and children in Kharkov. From there he will be once more applying for exit visas so that he may join his brother in Israel.

The family is most grateful for your support and I know that they would appreciate it enormously if you could find time to write to Alexander and Polina at home. Their address is:

USSR / UKRAINIAN SSR
KHARKOV 310091
ul. Tonkopia 19/2
Apt. 48
PARITSKY Polina and Alexander

With very many thanks for your concern and with every good wish

Yours sincerely,

Rita Eker

Dear Mr. Justice:

I am pleased to inform you that the National Jewish Post and Opinion, a leading Jewish newspaper, has published an article on the Soviet Jewry issue. The article, written by me, is entitled "The Soviet Jewry Issue: A Call for Action". It is a call for action on the part of the American Jewish community to help the Soviet Jews. I am sure that you will find this article of interest.

The National Jewish Post and Opinion is a leading Jewish newspaper and is read by a wide cross-section of the Jewish community. I am sure that you will find this article of interest.

Very truly yours,
RITA EBER

RITA EBER and MARGARET

I hope very much that you will find this article of interest.

Sincerely,

RITA EBER

The Prime Minister has asked me to thank you for your letter of 10 September. She will, I know be delighted to hear that Alexander Paritsky has been released, and that he has rejoined his wife and children.

The Prime Minister would not however regard it as appropriate, or necessarily in Mr. Paritsky's best interests, to send him a message. I am sure you will understand.

(David Barclay)

Mrs. Rita Eker.
