I have had a word with the Prime Minister about the possibility of you seeing her when you are over here and much as she would like to have a chat I do not think it is going to be possible this time. Her diary seems to be more over-crowded than ever and you will be in London during a particularly busy period leading up to a major speech in Wales on the 22nd. The Prime Minister is sorry to miss you.

With all best wishes and I am copying this letter c/o your sister.

Dear Caroline,
here is a (very short) note I said I'd send to Prime Minister.

Sorry to miss you again.
I much enjoyed the meeting you joined with the PM - in splendid form for about three quarters of an hour. And saw the well-deserved polls!

We'll be over in May, (just possibly earlier as well): do hope to see you then.

Love

Bob
