Dear Mrs Thatcher,

It certainly was a great pleasure meeting you at 10 Downing. The importance with which you attach to Soviet Jewry was appreciated by all. The time you took out of your very busy schedule to meet with the Parliamentary Wives for Soviet Jewry was very well received. Your knowledge of the subject and the concern you show for it will hopefully make the difference. We certainly will keep up the pressure and never forget the rights of those denied their freedom of religion.

Thank you for your insights and where you see us helping.

Yours Truly,

Goldie Hershon
