MR. WICKS

The Prime Minister today met a young Soviet refusenik, Misha Taratuta.

The Prime Minister raised the subject of the possibility of the Human Rights Conference being held in Moscow. She asked Misha for his view on this. He said that on balance he thought it would be a mistake. He felt that even though the Soviets might feel obliged to release more refuseniks for appearances sake, in the longer term it would give them credibility they do not deserve. She said she agreed.
