MR. ADDISONPRIME MINISTER'S VISIT TO TURKEY: SPEECH AT MAYOR OF ISTANBUL'S
LUNCH

During her visit to Turkey, the Prime Minister will speak at a lunch for businessmen given by the Mayor of Istanbul. Unlike her main speech the previous day, this one should focus on her economic philosophy and the performance of the UK economy, as well as trade between Britain and Turkey.

I attach a first draft. I am sending it to FCO/DTI/Embassy asking them to do some work on pages 12-21. Could you and Paul Gray very kindly look at the earlier bit, with an eye to filling it out and pepping it up in an interesting way. I want to put together a fresh version of the speech on Thursday evening for the weekend box.
