Dear Charles,

PRIME MINISTER'S VISIT TO TURKEY : SPEECH AT LUNCH AT INSTANBUL

Your letter of 21^{10/2/88} March to Lyn Parker invited additions to this draft speech.

The text is satisfactory to DTI and we are content with Post's suggested amendments in Ankara Telno 0164. We suggest two further minor changes as follows:-

Page 13, para 13

Amend to read: "... increase trade and investment. Many British companies have invested in Turkey. The climate for investment must, however, be good. Safeguards for the investment and for intellectual property rights are important.
We wish to increase links of all kinds ..."

Page 17, para 18

Amend to read "... reputation for bridge and roadbuilding and much else besides".

*Yours sincerely
Step Ratcliffe*
