Dear Mr. Leydecker

Thank you very much indeed for inviting me to the Business Centre today, and for giving me the opportunity to see the vital work you and your colleagues do to promote British companies and expertise, and for the chance to meet so many of the British business community whom you have encouraged and supported. It was a thoroughly enjoyable visit, and I am most grateful for all the careful preparation which went into making my time at the Centre so fascinating.

Yours sincerely

David Thorneycroft
