THE PRIME MINISTER

10 April 1988

Dear Lord Mayor

I should like to thank you most warmly for your kind hospitality during my visit to Ankara, and in particular for the excellent lunch which you so kindly arranged. I was most impressed by the vigour and pace of Ankara's development and by the way in which you are tackling the problems of a great modern city. I wish you continued success.

Your kind gift was very much appreciated; and may I also ask you to convey my gratitude to all those concerned with my programme in Ankara for their help.

My husband joins me in sending you best wishes.

Yours sincerely
Margaret Thatcher

The Lord Mayor of Ankara
