THE PRIME MINISTER

10 April 1988

Dear Mr. Türkoglu,

Thank you so much for showing me round the Topkapi Palace during my recent visit to Istanbul. It was sad to have so little time and I saw enough to know that I could happily spend many days seeing your treasures. Even so, the brief time I spent with you was full of wonderment and interest and I am most grateful for your guidance.

My husband joins me in sending you best wishes.

Yours sincerely

Margaret Thatcher
