Dear Prime Minister

It is with enormous gratitude that I write to convey to you the marvellous news that I have heard this afternoon from Mr Grigory Rosenstein in Moscow, that his entire family have now received permission to emigrate to Israel. Throughout the last year I have kept Mr Rosenstein informed of the active involvement of your office, Mr Butt at the Foreign Office and the British Embassy in Moscow and he has asked me in particular to convey to you his thanks.

At a time like this it is difficult to adequately express one's feelings, but I hope it will be sufficient if I make clear that this family owes its happiness and its future to you.

Yours sincerely
