PRESIDENT VASSILIOU

The Prime Minister can offer President Vassiliou a working lunch on 23 November. But her programme is very tight that day and the time available is from 1250 to 1420. I hope very much this is convenient to the President.

PRESIDENT VASSILIOU

The Prime Minister has agreed to see President Vassiliou again on 23 November. I cannot offer you a precise time at this stage but there is a possibility that the Prime Minister could again offer him lunch. I will be in touch with you further about this.

MRS. GAISMAN

The Prime Minister has agreed to see President Vassiliou on his way back from New York on 23 November. The simplest way is to kill two birds with one stone by making it a meeting over lunch. I think this is possible that day. Could you please confirm.

C.D.P.

I have put this in the diary but would be exceedingly glad if he was unable to come!

PRIME MINISTER

PRESIDENT VASSILIOU

You encouraged President Vassiliou to see you again following the further meeting with the UN Secretary-General which he planned.

He has now been in touch to say that he will be seeing Perez de Cuellar in New York on 21/22 November and wonders whether he can call on you in London on 23 November.

I attach the relevant page of the long-term diary. 23 November is after the debate on the adress. But we were trying to keep that day relatively free for you.

Agree to see him then (perhaps over lunch)?

Yes not

Or

Prefer to divert him to the Foreign Secretary this time?
