

PRIME MINISTER

SOVIET UNION

Bob Conquest has telephoned me on his return from Moscow. He found the situation there very worrying, with everything slipping badly and is dubious about Gorbachev's prospects. I have asked him to set his main reflections down on paper before he returns to California and will try to have a further word with him at the weekend.

C.D.P. ms

(C. D. POWELL)

3 May 1990

a:\foreign\Conquest (srw)