SECRETARY OF STATE FOR FOREIGN AND COMMONWEALTH AFFAIRS

Falkland Islanders: Entry into the UK

Thank you for your minute. - FC 007 ATT

I am quite content that an assurance on the lines you request should be given. Indeed our officials have already been in touch on this point in connection with Questions which have been tabled in the Commons.

I suggest that the assurance should be given in the following terms:

"I understand from my rt. hon. Friend that no Falkland Islander, whether he has the right of abode or not, will have any difficulty over admission to this country.

I am copying this to the Prime Minister and John Nott.
