 Did Chalfont offer to discuss sovereignty in the 1960s?

Do you need info on this?
It might be useful to have it in case you are interrupted.

2. Is not the answer to Callaghan's question, that we do not regard our sovereignty as having been affected in any way and therefore there's no question of having to restore it?

Yes.

3. Have you the answer on redundancy notices? 500 is quite unture.
