

Failed
The proposal of 4/10/82

Woods ^{Woods}
Sloan

4/10/82

On the basis of United Nations Security Council Resolution No. 502, Argentina and the United Kingdom have agreed on the following steps which form an integrated whole.

All military and security forces will be withdrawn from the islands and agreed surrounding areas as soon as possible, but not later than two weeks from the date of this agreement.

Agreed to be Please withdraw

No new military or security forces shall be introduced into the Islands or surrounding areas, which shall become and, until ultimate disposition, remain demilitarized (except for local police).

*agrop of half controversial signature this
+ W/D of sections*

A consortium of friendly countries (the United States, Canada, two Latin American countries) shall send observers to monitor compliance with the obligations in the two preceding paragraphs.

Pending a final statement,

Communications and movement of people between the mainland and the islands shall be maintained and promoted consistent with existing understandings.

The Consortium, as feasible and appropriate, shall encourage developments in this area.

*argued with open door between mainland
islands
(prior restrictions)*

Argentina and Britain shall undertake to negotiate by no later than December 31, 1982 [a mutually acceptable ultimate disposition of the Islands, within a framework of respect for the rights and interests of all parties, including the inhabitants of the Islands,] consistent with the Purposes and Principles of the United Nations Charter. The Consortium shall make itself available to the two countries to assist the process of negotiation and the application of the settlement.

*add Approp. G.A.
Resolutions*

relevant provisions of the needs to be revised/expanded

Selection is to complete the negot. by 12/31/82

*no need re-label
the substitutions
for no longer
valid*

On an interim basis, all decisions, laws and regulations adopted by the local administration on the Islands shall be ratified by the Consortium, except in the event that the Consortium deems any such decision, law or regulation to be inconsistent with the implementation of this agreement. The traditional local administration shall continue, including the executive and legislative councils. Argentina shall name a senior official as its Coordinator on the Islands to act as liaison to the Consortium to assist it in its tasks.

Argent still interested in a Governor acting w/ power for territorial issues was then usurped issues

This designed to recog. the local administration

Changes role of Argent. Governor -

Not return to Argent. States are auto per Tom Argent. Dept says this goes back to Grant the states go auto

4/10/82

Proposal to Argentines 3:30-6:30 PM
on 4/10/82

On the basis of United Nations Security Council Resolution No. 502, Argentina and the United Kingdom have agreed on the following steps which form an integrated whole.

All military and security forces will be withdrawn from the islands and agreed surrounding areas as soon as possible, but not later than two weeks from the date of this agreement.

No new military or security forces shall be introduced into the Islands or surrounding areas, which shall become and, until ultimate disposition, remain demilitarized (except for local police).

A consortium of friendly countries (the United States, Canada, two Latin American countries) shall send observers to monitor compliance with the obligations in the two preceding paragraphs.

Communications and movement of people between the mainland and the islands shall be maintained and promoted consistent with existing understandings.

The Consortium, as feasible and appropriate,
shall encourage developments in this area.

Argentina and Britain shall undertake to negotiate by no later than December 31, 1982 a mutually acceptable ultimate disposition of the Islands, within a framework of respect for the rights and interests of all parties, including the inhabitants of the Islands, consistent with the Purposes and Principles of the United Nations Charter. The Consortium shall make itself available to the two countries to assist the process of negotiation and the application of the settlement.

On an interim basis, all decisions, laws and regulations adopted by the local administration on the Islands shall be ratified by the Consortium, except in the event that the Consortium deems any such decision, law or regulation to be inconsistent with the implementation of this agreement. The traditional local administration shall continue, including the executive and legislative councils. Argentina shall name a senior official as its Coordinator on the Islands to act as liaison to the Consortium to assist it in its tasks.