

Private and Confidential

Government Chief Whip

12 Downing Street, London SW1

Secretary of State for Defence

Michael Brotherton is going round saying that it is not true that the military preparations have been put back by the diplomatic negotiations. I think he is saying this on the basis of a friendship with Admiral Woodward.

It might stop tiresome rumours if someone could get alongside him.

14 May 1982