REPORTED FROM THE OPERATIONS CENTER: 1800 London Time, April 13, 1982

The following Reuters dispatch from La Paz has just been received:

Bolivia mobilized war planes today and offered to fight beside Argentina against Britain over the Falkland Islands crisis. Offer came as the OAS began a second day of talks in Washington aimed at agreeing on a position on the crisis.

Air Force Commander Natalio Morales said Bolivia was ready to help its southern neighbor "if the situation arises" and is moving several military aircraft and fuel to the border.
