PRIME MINISTER

The Taoiseach asked you to sign copies of the Anglo-Irish Agreement for himself, his children and grandchildren.

I have obtained UK copies and suggest you sign either on the cover or under your printed signature on page 10.

From the Private Secretary

9 December 1985

In the margins of the European Council the Taoiseach asked the Prime Minister if she would sign a number of copies of the Anglo/Irish Agreement for him, his children and his grandchildren. He handed over the Irish texts.

The Prime Minister is prepared to sign copies of the Agreement, but only British texts. I have explained this to Mr. Nally who was content. I now enclose nine signed copies which I should be grateful if you could send to our Embassy in Dublin to be passed on to the Taoiseach.
