

PRIME MINISTER

BL

DTI officials met people from GM at McKinseys
this afternoon.

The people from GM felt unable to give any firm views without a clear steer from Detroit. The British end of the GM will be putting options to Detroit at the end of the week. They are likely to recommend that talks should be opened with the Government about Leyland Vehicles. DTI cannot say what view Detroit may take.

David Norgrove

29 April 1986