[?for briefing OD(SA), 1-2 May 1982]

?We read political requirement of military ?to provide the military options and action that will establish the conditions of to ensure an Argentine withdrawal from the F.I.s & re-establishment of British Administration.

We gave CinC a planning directive for Landing on the FIs with a view to repossessing the islands.

He has enough forces to establish a secure bridge head and to advance inland, but if Argentine forces are established in strength in prepared defensive positions in & around Port [p2 begins] Stanley, with his limitation of ?ideally keeping civilian casualties to a minimum he could get into a siege-stalemate situation, with time not on our side.

If he is required to achieve a quick & complete repossession, he considers he needs another Bde [Brigade]. This is trained & ready. The critical path for getting it there on time is slipping, & requisitioning would have to start very soon. It could include the QE2, which ?could [text ends]
