Dear George,

I am writing you from Aberdeen after visiting John Monaghan - the head of Public Affairs for Shell.

As I expect you know Shell run an exceptionally impressive 4 year Training Programme for 16-18 year olds.
It is called Shell Expro Technicians Training Scheme, and it's a joint venture between Shell Expro and the Grampian Regional Council.

John asked me to suggest to you that the Prime minister might be interested to see it during her Abroaden visit. It is said to be the highest quality training programme in Europe.

Anyway, just an idea
if she has a chink in her programme - and I hope you don't mind my suggesting it to you.

Do hope you've had a decent break and are ready for the grindstone once again!

We are just off to Tunbridge for a few days fishing - a good treat!

Yours ever,

Richard
