Dear Mr. Wicks,

In your letter to me of 25th November you said in the second paragraph that you understood that, in my discussions with Sir Max Williams of Clifford Turner, I did "not need to go into any detail." On reflection, I do not know what this means and, at a later date, I do not want to be the subject of further "consideration" on the grounds of having gone into too much detail with my own solicitors. What I said in my letter to you of 24th November was that I would put my legal advisers in the picture, "naturally on a 'need to know' basis."

Yours sincerely,

Rothschild
