

MR. POWELL

Mr. Nally came in with the following message:

`I have spoken to the Taoiseach.

The request stands. Perhaps we could have a word about an alternative time convenient to both.

The Taoiseach suggests that the reason might be personal convenience.

I will be around if you wish to contact me - Room II03, in the lobby or in the Taoiseach's room: Room 4I3 after II.00.'
