Dear Ambassador,

I was so sorry to hear that you were ill and to miss you at the European Council. I very much hope that you are now feeling better. Meanwhile Brian Donnelly and Michael Roberts both did splendidly, and I am most grateful for all their help. It was not the most exciting Council, but Mr. Papandreou got through, although he looked very weary by the end. I have, of course, written to thank him.

I hope you will pass on my gratitude to all the members of your staff involved in the arrangements for the Council and my visit to Rhodes.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely

Raymond Thatcher

I should like you to know how very much I appreciated the warm welcome which I received during my visit to Rhodes for the European Council, and also for the excellent arrangements made to look after us. I can well imagine what a major undertaking this was. We were treated with the greatest kindness and hospitality throughout. May I ask you to pass on my thanks to all those concerned.

Thank you also for the delightful gift which will be a reminder of my visit - and my hope to return one day.

With best wishes,
