ANGLO-FRENCH SUMMIT: GIFTS

✓ You will probably want to give President Mitterrand a gift at the Anglo-French Summit. We could give him a large Armada silver dish (£300) or an Imari bowl (about the same price). I have tried to think whether there is anything which match his passion for globes but have not come up with anything. Agree one of the above?

You ought also to take a gift for the de Vogues with whom you will lunch on Sunday at Vaux-le-Vicomte. I suggest two Imari Crown Derby goblets. Content?
