Sir,

May I express to Your Majesty my gratitude and appreciation for your kind hospitality at luncheon at the Royal Palace during the recent European Council. It was a most pleasant and stimulating interlude and I was delighted to be able to continue the very interesting discussion which we have enjoyed on earlier occasions.

May I also take the opportunity to congratulate Your Majesty on your recent appointment to the Garter and The Queen on her honorary doctorate at Oxford University.

It was a great pleasure to re-visit Madrid - and I was very glad that the Spanish Presidency of the European Community was crowned with a successful European Council.

Yours sincerely

Raymond Maitre

His Majesty The King of Spain
