Dear Charles,

at Germany

Your letter of 31 January asked for advice on possible participants at an informal discussion on Germany and Central Europe. We would suggest you choose from among the following:

A / Timothy Garton-Ash
Edwina Moreton, The Economist
Alex Pravda, St Antony's (formerly Chatham House)
Professor Gordon Smith, LSE (German politics)
Philip Windsor, LSE, Reader of Department of International Relations
Ian Davidson, Financial Times
Edward Mortimer, Financial Times
Professor John Ericson, Edinburgh University (Soviet military expert)
Gordon Craig, author, US-based (in his 70s)
Dominic Lieven, LSE
Professor Norman Stone, Oxford (East Europe)
Professor Ralph Dahrendorf (possible)
Paul Kennedy, Yale University (British national) / B

The Foreign Secretary hopes that he, Mr Waldegrave and Sir C Mallaby could be included.

Yours,
Stephen Wall
