From the Private Secretary

EUROPEAN COUNCIL, DUBLIN

I ought to put on record that at Dublin the Prime Minister did not:

- invite Mr. Lubbers to come over on 1 June. We never had the bilateral with him, because our aircraft was kept stacked for some 40 minutes and we only arrived just in time for the opening of the Council itself;
- speak to M. Delors about his staying on as President of the Commission. By the time there was an opportunity to do so, he had already said enough to make her doubt the wisdom of it!
