From the Private Secretary

26 July 1990

Dear Stephen,

PRIME MINISTER'S MEETING WITH HERR GENSCHER

The Prime Minister and Foreign Secretary had a brief word this afternoon about her forthcoming meeting with Herr Genscher. The Foreign Secretary said the Department would draw up a list of penetrating questions for the Prime Minister to put to Herr Genscher, both on the economic consequences of unification, and on a single currency and European Central Bank. We needed to show both Herr Genscher and Chancellor Kohl how very real and substantial our difficulties with these latter concepts were.

OK // I should be grateful if you could let me have a list of questions by late tomorrow afternoon.

*Yours mark,
Charles Powell*
